

{comments off}

The company's main activities are:

- technological development of biomaterials and improvement under the brand AMBELIKA®;
- production of exclusive textiles, including biotextiles

Company's business concept - to grow and develop, put into practice latest innovations in ecologically pure product technology designed to improve human health, delay aging and to maintain a high standard of living.

"JLU Technologies" manufactures a wide range of high quality hosiery. This product is characterized by innovative textile use (including silver) as base material.

Part of the science of heat and moisture management. The ingredients are not, effective protection of perspiration.